

THE SOCIETY FOR OLD TESTAMENT STUDY

PROPOSAL FOR MEMBERSHIP

Those wishing to be proposed for membership in the Society will normally have knowledge of Biblical Hebrew, will often have completed or be completing a postgraduate qualification in a biblical or cognate discipline and will almost always have studied the Old Testament/Hebrew Bible formally at degree level. It is strongly recommended that those wishing to be considered for membership attend a meeting of the Society as a guest before being proposed and seconded by members of the Society in good standing.

Name of Candidate (in block letters):

Title (e.g. Ms, Mr, Revd, Dr, Professor):

Full postal address (including post code):

E-mail address:

Telephone:

Degree(s), together with subject and awarding institution:

Title of any postgraduate thesis, name of supervisor and institution (required where relevant):

Present and past posts (where relevant):

Special interests in Biblical Studies (very briefly put):

Details of publications (where relevant):

Names and signatures of two existing members of the Society who support the nomination and vouch for the candidate's competence in Biblical Hebrew:

Proposer: Name: Signature:

Secunder: Name: Signature:

Proposals for Membership are considered at each meeting of the Society. They should reach the Secretary, Dr David Shepherd, (preferably by email: shepherd@tcd.ie or alternatively by post: ISE/Loyola Institute, School of Religions, Peace Studies and Theology, Trinity College Dublin, Dublin 2, Ireland) no later than 30th November for the Winter Meeting and no later than 30th June for the Summer Meeting.